

Samuel Jarman

YEAR OF CALL: 1989 England and Wales

website: <http://www.lombardchambers.com>
email: sjarman@lombardchambers.com

Samuel's principal work is focused on commercial litigation/arbitration (contracts, banking, insurance & reinsurance, shipping (dry) and commercial fraud), jurisdictional disputes, private international law (conflicts) and Japanese law. In the field of banking, Samuel's specialities include the defence of claims brought by banks, particularly against small to medium sized businesses (those with an annual turnover of up to £50 million) where facilities are secured with guarantees and/or legal charges over the personal property of directors or shareholders. In the field of insurance Samuel's specialities include coverage disputes under legal expenses insurance and/or professional indemnity, & maritime umbrella policies.

SOME NOTABLE CASES

TICC v Cosco (UK) Limited [2001] December 5, Court of Appeal (successful claim by a freight forwarder for repayment of post season surcharges imposed by an international carrier of goods by sea and paid to its UK agent under duress)

In Re Crookshank Limited [200] Administrative Court (various claims against multiple defendants involving the recovery and re-sale in the UK of cars originally stolen in Japan worth about £4 million)

Jyske Bank (Gibraltar) Ltd v Spjeldnaes & Others 1996 CH D (a fraud of about £70 million involving 30 defendants in multiple jurisdictions)

Import Car Specialist Limited v Chief Constable of Hampshire Constabulary & Others [2001] QBD (various claims against multiple defendants involving the recovery and re-sale in the UK of cars originally stolen in Japan with about £60 million)

Casio Computers Ltd v Savo & Others [1998] Ch D (a fraud of about $100 million involving 20 defendants in multiple jurisdictions)

In Re a Company (No 62 of 1995) [1996] Times of 15 February (a technical point of procedure in presenting petitions to wind up UK companies).